

JEAN JAHR, PRESIDENT

BOB HAUGLAND, EDITOR

Special Thank You to Pauline and Lilly Sakai for hosting our April meeting on short notice.

Pauline treated us to a tour of her pond's filter system, as well as a tour of the botanical gardens she calls home. Lilly regaled us with her homemade sushi, because she rolls that way.

The 2014 Koi Person of the Year, Bob Haugland (left), gives the trophy to the 2015 Koi Person of the Year to Sam Niebank (right). Sam steps up on a regular basis. His current emphasis is our next Koi Show and continuing Koi Rescue. It's all about the fish.

Next Meeting, May 31 Mike & Molly Tsuchida

I know what you're thinking, "I've already seen their pond (and dogs).", but have you? This time we're going to get the whole Magilla Gorilla about the state of the art filter system. Anthony Quintero of Koi Enterprise will be explaining every little detail about the complexities and the simplicities of the system.

And the always generous Anthony is also bringing some goodies to share with us. So I don't mess something up, here's the email I got from Molly:

"Mike just spoke to Anthony Quintero of Koi Enterprise who will be the speaker at our meeting this month to talk about the new pond design. Anthony said he will bring items to award as various prizes (to be explained at the meeting) to include: Beni Color Kichi 10 lb medium pellet food; Beni Color Kichi 10lb small pellet food; 1 box Manda Fu koi food; Ammonia-Nitrite, Nitrate, pH, KH test kits (all are liquid type and new & fresh), koi collectables, and a surprise gift from Koi Enterprise."

Here's the Specs...

The Tsuchida address is 1030 Appollo Way, Sacramento, 95822. Note that Appollo has two p's & two l's. If you put it in you GPS any other way you're going to end up somewhere else. No pond. No fish. No dogs.

The board meets at noon. Any and all are welcome to sit in on the board meeting. The general meeting and potluck starts around 1pm. Bring a little something to share at the potluck and your camera.

Updates

June 20 – 21 we are hosts to the Annual AKCA Business Meeting & Wet Lab at the Hilton Garden Inn, in Natomas. CKC is not paying for this, AKCA is. All we are doing is arranging things for our out of town guests. Some people are still unclear as to where the hotel is. It's west of I-5, south of W. El Camino, north of Discovery Park. CKC members get a price break on the wet lab. It's only \$25! Now is the time to register for this. See p. 53 of the March/April Koi USA. More information will be available at the CKC meeting, or contact Jean Jahr. \(www.AKCA.org\)

Here's Jerry's official report about it:

CKC-Report to AKCA May, 2015...by Jerold Kyle, Club Rep

Camellia Koi Club will be hosting the AKCA Annual Meeting and KHA Wet Lab in Sacramento in June. Dr, Nick Saint-Erne, DMV, will be presenting the Koi Health Advisor Wet Lab, which will be open to attendees to sit in and observe along with KHA Students. With news of the latest breakout of KHV it is timely that he has invited Dr. Aimee Reed DMV, PhD, CertAqV at Oregon State University to speak and help at the Wet Lab. Dr. Reed earned her third PhD working on KHV research that AKCA and its clubs have funded and research reports have been published. Dr, Reed will tell us in layman's terms what has been learned and why the excitement of where it might lead. This is simply one more reason enthusiasm is building over this year's meeting and Wet Lab.

Also...The July meeting is actually a field trip to the Ceronix Sanctuary in Auburn. We will see the gigantic mud pond & koi as well as various waterfowl and other birds and animals. There is also a picnic area with barbeque grilling facilities. Going to have to vote on a name for this event. CKC Sausage Fest? First & Last Annual Hot Dog-a-thon? Be sure to bring a partner for the three-legged race.

Days of events June 20th - 21st. for the AKCA meetings at Hilton Gardens Inn Natomas, CA Georgia paid AKCA membership July 1st thru June 30 of next year 2016. If we have a Koi show this year we will have to pay AKCA for liability insurance to cover guest.

Calendar update: July meeting will be held at Ceronix Sanctuary in Auburn

New Business:

We need to get as many microscopes for the wet lab as it is hard for the AKCA to furnace The wet lab. Microscopes do not travel well so they are depending on our club member to Have a heart and allow the AKCA to borrow microscopes for the 2 days. Anyone able to help out please let jean know.

Sam needs help with putting together a club koi show. Those that could spare some time he sure could use some help. Meeting at his home. Give him a call. Meeting was held May 6 but he will be putting together future meetings.

Next club meeting at Mike and Molly's on Apollo way. Mike said you will not recognize his place from last meeting.
